The hits just keep coming for CNN. The far left network is facing being spun off by its corporate parent company Warner Bros./Discovery sometime in 2026.

They view the network as a ‘declining asset’ and are going to split it into two entities.

The people who are described as on-air ‘talent’ have destroyed what was once considered the foundation of cable news. Over the last decade they have shredded not only their own credibility, but the reputation of the network. They have totally earned what is coming.

FOX News reports:

CNN has ‘tears on the horizon’ as Warner Bros. Discovery plots network spinoff, industry insiders say

CNN has “tears on the horizon” after Warner Bros. Discovery announced last week that it will split into two companies by separating its studios and streaming business from cable TV networks, according to media insiders.

The corporate split, which is expected to be completed by mid-2026, will have significant ramifications for CNN, which is being treated as a declining asset that weighed down WBD’s shinier businesses.

A little over three years ago, Discovery Inc. merged with WarnerMedia to create Warner Bros. Discovery to much fanfare as CEO David Zaslav touted the company as “the best place for impactful storytelling.” Things didn’t exactly work out, and Warner Bros. Discovery CFO Gunnar Wiedenfels will lead the spun-off group of cable assets, including CNN, while Zaslav keeps the studios and streaming business.

“Putting a bean counter as CEO sends a very clear message: this is finally the beginning of the long-overdue correction of the [Jeff] Zucker-era excesses,” a media insider close to CNN told Fox News Digital....

“It’s not just the overpriced talent. It’s the overpriced producers. The overpriced executives. The superfluous reporters who barely are on the air. All will either be exited or forced to take massive pay cuts,” the media insider said.

Here’s a reminder of why CNN deserves to go the way of the dinosaurs.

CNN and MSNBC called the anti-ICE protests “peaceful” 211 times in 24 hours.

That’s not reporting—that’s narrative laundering.

When fires are burning and mobs are chanting, the media’s job isn’t to gaslight the public—it’s to tell the truth. But truth doesn’t serve the Left’s...

It’s not a news network. It’s a propaganda outlet for the far left.
