

COMMENTARY WND NEWS CENTER

ALL THE GOVERNOR'S SCANDALS

Andrew Cuomo's Lewinski diversion

Exclusive: Scott Lively sees N.Y. leader skating on COVID deaths, as Clinton did on CCP issueBy Scott Lively

Published August 12, 2021 at 7:39pm

On March 25, 2020, as the human death toll attributed to COVID-19 was skyrocketing, and the official government narrative for granting itself extraordinary emergency powers was centered on hospitals being overrun with COVID patients, New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo made the executive decision to sacrifice the very elderly and infirm so that more hospital beds would be available for younger people. That's my most charitable possible theory as to Cuomo's motive for issuing what in retrospect was clearly a death warrant for over 15,000 nursing home patients in the Empire State. That death warrant was the now infamous Cuomo Nursing Home Directive, stating in pertinent part:

"No resident shall be denied re-admission or admission to the NH solely based on a confirmed or suspected diagnosis of COVID-19. NHs are prohibited from requiring a hospitalized resident who is determined medically stable to be tested for COVID-19 prior to admission or re-admission."

My less charitable, more realistic theory is that Andrew Cuomo intentionally murdered those "useless eaters" with the same Malthusian imperiousness he displayed in championing New York's ghoulish 2019 late-term abortion law.

I published my early analysis on this story as "The Murder Trial of Andrew Cuomo" on May 18, 2020, based on the facts known at that time.

Since then, my conclusions about Cuomo have hardened. It's now obvious to me that he was the globalists' designated point-man for the plandemic "lockdown to takedown" facet of the (multi-faceted) coup d'etat against President Trump. As head of the six-state Northeast COVID Cabal (New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island) with combined "COVID-related" fatalities far surpassing the rest of the nation, Cuomo held the so-called "moral high ground" for steering national lockdown policy. From a purely Machiavellian political perspective, the more deaths the better, with the sudden wave of "death taxes" into state coffers being just icing on the cake. ("Death taxes" in New York include both estate taxes – which can be up to 40% – and inheritance taxes – New York being one of the few states still exacting these.)

But even in today's Amerika, mass murder is hard to get away with, and so, when his damage-control efforts proved ineffective, Andrew Cuomo needed a survivable exit strategy.

Enter Lindsey Boylan (aka "Andrew Cuomo's Monica Lewinski") as the first in a parade of "me too" accusers.

To be absolutely clear, I am not accusing Ms. Boylan of complicity in Cuomo's public diversion scheme, any more that I think Monica Lewinski was in on the Bill Clinton diversion strategy (though in Lewinski's case, I think it's possible). I'm only saying that Cuomo is following the Clinton playbook to the letter by allowing an almost certainly ally-orchestrated (or at least nudged), fully survivable (and "stud-status" enhancing) sex scandal to draw public attention away from the real scandal and its risk of truly serious consequences.

Let's revisit the Clinton scenario. In the mid-1990s, Bill Clinton was in serious political and potentially legal trouble over giving high-tech ballistic missile technology to Communist China by granting trade policy waivers to his buddy Bernard L Schwartz, a New York mega-donor and then head of Loral Corporation. The Baltimore Sun reported in May of 1998 that:

"Allegations that Democratic campaign contributions resulted in the transfer of sensitive ballistic missile technology to China have touched off congressional charges of the gravest kind: betrayal of the public trust, breaches of national security, even treason. ... Loral was able to launch its satellite in China in 1996 only after Clinton signed a special waiver of U.S. export control law ... but it came as Loral was donating more than $1 million to the 1996 campaigns, 81 percent of which went to Democrats. Loral chief executive Bernard L. Schwartz personally donated more than $1 million to Democratic candidates and committees, including $581,000 to the Democratic National Committee."

Wikipedia provides more insight: "Schwartz is a lifelong Democrat. According to NBC News, he was the largest single contributor to the Democratic Party from 1992 to 1996. In 1996, he celebrated his 71st birthday with Bill and Hillary Clinton at the White House. ... In 2016, Schwartz donated US$1 million to Priorities USA Action, a Super PAC supporting Democratic presidential candidate Hillary Clinton. Schwartz is also in the $5 million-$10 million bracket of donors to the Clinton Foundation."

When it looked like Bill Clinton was in real trouble over the Loral/CCP scandal, with the U.S. Congress soon alleging treason, the Lewinski scandal broke. That was on Jan. 17, 1998, on The Drudge Report (was Matt a deep-stater all along?). Instantly, the (likely complicit) corporate media began a feeding frenzy that sucked all the air out of the Loral/CCP scandal, which quickly died on the vine. Both Clinton and Schwartz escaped without serious consequences and remained key players at the top of the Democratic food chain. Schwartz got a $14 million slap on the wrist, divested Loral and started the Dems' deep-well donation farm called Bl Investments.

Care to guess who is a really close adviser and mega-donor to Andrew Cuomo? We're not sure if Cuomo's scandal-tainted "vaccine czar" Larry Schwartz is related.

What we do know is that, like Clinton, Cuomo is almost certain to skate on the mass murder charge, especially since the Biden Justice Department announced just two weeks ago, it will not be investigating those deaths – the timing of that announcement (in letter form) suggesting it was the final assurance Cuomo required from the power-brokers before agreeing to resign this week.

Watch a video version of this column: