Twitter CEO Elon Musk took to his own platform early Friday morning to share his views on child sex changes, saying that doctors and parents who allow their kids to undergo life-altering transgender surgeries should be thrown in prison for life.

“Any parent or doctor who sterilizes a child before they are a consenting adult should go to prison for life,” Musk wrote in response to another tweet calling out an MSNBC article in which the author accused Florida Governor Ron DeSantis of “destroying an entire state.”

One reader responded to the thread of Musk’s reply tweet, writing, “It’s baffling to me that a medical professional would perform any operation or prescribe any meds to children for any sort of gender change. They must have no soul.”

Another explained why transgender surgeries could be gaining in popularity, while also agreeing with Musk:

Musk’s comment – which has racked up an astounding 240,000 likes on Twitter in less than four hours – comes at a heated time in the transgender debate.
